Imagine it is September 1939. You live in the country. One or more children have recently been billeted at your house. Write a page from your diary. What do you think of the child or children? You could write about * their behaviour* their clothes and appearance * their manners and language* their eating habits * whether they're settling in well

Diary September 1939