And or But.

And is used when we expect the second part follows the first part.

But is used when we do not expect the second part to follow the first part.

Use and or but to join each pair of sentences below:

1. The road was slippery. The bus was late.

2. She spoke softly. I could hear her.

3. It was growing dark. He could see the road.

4. Susan can play the piano. She sings as well.

5. The thunder was loud. It was difficult to sleep.

6. Tim practised hard. He won the race.

7. Bob is not very tall. He is a good runner.

8. Mary has a new blazer. She wore her old one.

9. The hill was steep. I grew tired climbing it.

10. I have read the story. I forget its title.

11. Tim set off late. He reached school in time.

12. Peter attends school every day. She is getting on well.

13. The girls worked hard. They finished the job.

14. Bill is quite young. He plays the piano very well.

15. The team was a player short. They won the game.

16. It was a lovely day. We enjoyed our picnic.