

Double negatives

Look at this sentence:

The dog hasn't got no whiskers.

It contains a double negative.

Now look at this sentence:

The dog hasn't got any whiskers.

This sentence is written correctly.

Write the correct version of these sentences in your books.

1. The car hadn't got no engine.
2. I never got no sums right.
3. She don't come home no more.
4. I haven't never seen the Queen.
5. She didn't go nowhere near him.
6. I'm not never going there again.
7. I don't want no help.
8. She didn't know nothing.

Double negatives

Look at this sentence:

The dog hasn't got no whiskers.

It contains a double negative.

Now look at this sentence:

The dog hasn't got any whiskers.

This sentence is written correctly.

Write the correct version of these sentences in your books.

1. The car hadn't got no engine.
2. I never got no sums right.
3. She don't come home no more.
4. I haven't never seen the Queen.
5. She didn't go nowhere near him.
6. I'm not never going there again.
7. I don't want no help.
8. She didn't know nothing.