

Artefacts from Tudor Times

An artefact is a special history name for objects that are from another period in time. Below is a set of artefacts from Tudor times. Which do you think could have belonged to a King or nobleman and which to a commoner or ordinary person? Cut them out and stick them into your book in two groups. Some of the artefacts might look strange - what do you think they were for? Maybe a dictionary could help if you looked up the name of the artefact.
