

I am David

1. a) What happy things does David remember while he is trapped?
b) Why should these be different from his life in the prison camp?
2. David realises "This would be the end" and he cries.
What else did he do that meant a lot to him?
3. a) What does David want God to give him and the dog?
b) What do you think about the way David spoke to God?
c) What does this prayer show about David's character?
4. What do you think it meant that the dog 'was going to take David's place'?
What do you think happens next?
5. Write a paragraph explaining how you feel about David's situation, what sort of person you think David is, how well you think he acted and how you think the story will end.
