

Krindlekrax by Philip Ridley

1. What is Krindlekrax
2. Where does Krindlekrax live?
3. How did it get there?
4. The author uses a very repetitive style of narrative, more suited to books for reading aloud to younger children.
 - a) Can you find two examples of this?
 - b) How did it affect your enjoyment of his story?
5. The author did other things before writing books. Did he use his previous skills, gained at St Martin's, in the production of this book?
6. What do you think of the illustrations in the book? Do they add to your enjoyment of the story?
7. What awards has this book won? Do you think they are deserved? If so, why?
