

Writing an Argument Using Speech Marks

You are going to write an argument using speech marks in your English books. Here is what your argument needs to be about:

REMEMBER TO USE SPEECH MARKS WHEN SOMEONE IS TALKING!!!

1. Alice and James are cross with each other.
2. Alice thinks that James stole her pen
3. James is cross because Alice has accused him of this.
4. James did not steal the pen.
5. Alice doesn't believe James.
6. She tells him she thinks he is a thief.
7. He tries to explain that he didn't take it.
8. She insists that he did.
9. He tells her to look in her pencil case again.
10. She asks him why she should.
11. He tells her to do it.
12. She looks in her pencil case.
13. She finds it.
14. She tells James that she is sorry.
15. He says that he's upset because she didn't believe him

Now finish off the story. It's up to you what happens!

To help you, here are some words that you might need:

Verbs:

asked shouted screamed yelled bellowed cried demanded answered replied apologised said

Adverbs:

Quietly loudly slowly regretfully tearfully happily angrily