

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

The Secret Garden punctuation 1

Read the text carefully and put in the capital letters and full stops. Read it again to check that it makes sense.

mary lennox was a spoilt, rude and bad-tempered child she was never really well, and she was thin, miserable and sour-faced no one liked her at all none of this was really marys own fault she was born in india, where her father worked he was always busy with his work and paid no attention to his daughter her mother was very pretty, and cared only for parties and pleasure she left mary in the care of an indian nursemaid, who gave the little girl everything she wanted so that she would not cry and upset her mother so not surprisingly, mary grew up into a spoilt and most unpleasant girl.