Chapter One
1. Why did Clive’s mum not want a pet? (page 9)

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

2. Why did Jade want a pet? (page 9)

______________________________________________________________________________

3. How did Jade try to persuade mum? (page 11)

______________________________________________________________________________

Chapter Three
4. Look at pages 25, 26 and 27. Hamsters are “nocturnal”. What do you think this means?

______________________________________________________________________________

Chapter Four
5. When does the Bubble Trouble start?

______________________________________________________________________________

6. Find the list of words on page 31. What do all these words mean?

______________________________________________________________________________

Chapter Six
7. What does Jade say you must make sure to do if you have a hamster? (page 54)

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
Chapter One
1. Why did Clive's mum not want a pet? (page 9)

Because they cost too much money; make too much mess; are too much trouble

2. Why did Jade want a pet? (page 9)

She's mad about animals

3. How did Jade try to persuade mum? (page 11)

She made notes of the good qualities different animals have

Chapter Three
4. Look at pages 25, 26 and 27. Hamsters are “nocturnal”. What do you think this means?

Active at night and asleep during the day

Chapter Four
5. When does the Bubble Trouble start?

Page 30, when Bubble escapes from his cage

6. Find the list of words on page 31. What do all these words mean?

Gone.

Chapter Six
7. What does Jade say you must make sure to do if you have a hamster? (page 54)

Shut the cage door properly; remember to feed; don’t dress them in dolly clothes