

God had spoken to the shepherd Moses through a burning bush. He told Moses to demand from the Pharaoh of Egypt that all Gods people would be set free. He made Moses their leader.

Pharaoh freed the slaves and God had truly won. Moses then began to lead the slaves to their new life and land.

Moses asked Pharaoh to release the slaves. But Pharaoh did not believe in God. So, God turned the Nile into blood. Next, He sent plagues of frogs and gnats, flies boils and dead animals.

When Pharaoh said the slaves could go, he lied. So God pummelled Egypt with fire and hail.. A child from every Egyptian family died. The Pharaohs son died too.
