Exercise

Exercise is important for a healthy heart and body.

Exercise makes our muscles strong.

Exercise develops our lungs.

Exercise helps our body to develop coordination, so that we can do things like catching and throwing.

We use up food for energy when we exercise. If we don't get enough exercise and eat too much, we may become overweight.

Exercise helps us to sleep at night.