Science: Group Observation Profile

Activity........................................................................................................................................

Date Started..............................................................................................................................

Date finished............................................................................................................................

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Group members</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Area of Assessment

Speaking and Listening

- listening to other’s contributions.
- built upon other’s contributions
- kept to the suggested topic for discussion
- made perceptive comments about the issues
- extended discussion logically
- made valid conclusions based on observations

Writing

- worked co-operatively with partner/group
- completed tasks set
- shared responsibility for group tasks

Self assessment

- can offer suggestions for alternative or better methods of testing or recording
- can justify their actions scientifically
- can offer a sensible opinion on the activity
- can say if the activity gave the results they expected.