

People who believed Jesus

Jairus pushed through the crowds to ask Jesus to cure his ill daughter.

Don't bother Jesus the servants told Jairus. Your daughter is dead.

A woman had been ill for a long time. She believed that if she touched the hem of the Lord's clothes she would get better.

"Don't worry," said Jesus, just believe. Your daughter is only sleeping. Everybody laughed at Jesus

Jesus felt the power leave Him. He told the woman to go away in peace as her belief had made her better.

"Wake up," Jesus told the girl. She did! Give her some food he told Jairus and his wife
