

Sandstorm by Judy Cumberbatch

What country was the story set in? Did this affect your enjoyment of the story? Explain.

Write about the time setting of the story. Say which things made you know the girl was living in the same time as you and which things made it seem as though it could have been set in the past.

How did you cope with the time-slip element of the story?

The author changed the way the teacher was portrayed several times in the story. Use her name and explain.
