

The Lost Key

Page 24 Fill in the missing nouns and proper nouns

A noun is a naming word.
Like bus.

It is something you can take a photograph of.

A proper noun is a noun with its own name.
Like Peter.

Proper nouns always have a capital letter.

The _____ pulled the _____ from the _____ and rubbed off the _____.

“The _____ has not glowed for a long time,” said _____.

“Perhaps it has lost its magic.”

“It’s had a bad time,” said _____.

Draw and write three more nouns from the book.
