hit the nail on the head

very rarely if ever

is very expensive

jump on the bandwagon

cannot stick

cut corners

there is something I need to complain about on cloud nine

Speak of the devil

very easy

believe the best about someone complete a task despite milles subgoals extremely happy

ignore in an unfriendly way Really good – the best
Give the cold shoulder get upset about what has already happened give the benefit of the doubt kill two birds with one stone something funny and enjoyable bee's knees

cry over spilt milk barrel of laughs talk about someone who then came in follow something because it is popular straight from the horse's mouth reward and a consequence once in a blue moon

costs an arm and a leg alert and focused

piece of cake
have a bone to pick with you
