

Adding the Narrative

Read through this dialogue from 'The Runaway' and think about the narrative which could be added to make an exciting story.

Write out this section of the story using your narrative as well as the dialogue. Make sure your narrative is paragraphed and helps the reader to picture the scene in their head. Don't forget to make it interesting and exciting!

"Let's go now," said Julia. "Somebody might ask us what we're here for."

"All right. I'm tired now anyway."

"Where we going to sleep?"

"Dunno. Somewhere."

"Perhaps there's another empty house," said Nathan, hopefully.

"Let's look," said Julia.

"Shall we see if we can get in there?" said Julia.
