

Treetops Stage 11

An Odd Job for Bob and Benny

1. Mrs Catkin said, "I've got an odd job for you. I'm going to visit my sister and I want you to look after my baby elephant. She can sleep in your shed and she likes a bun now and then." Now look at page 9.

What did Benny think Mrs Catkin had said to him?

*'I want you to look after my baby*_____

2. Look at page 15. Why did Bob and Benny try and put the bed into the garden?

3. Why did they make a hole in the roof?

4. What had Daisy gone out to look for and where did Bob and Benny find her?

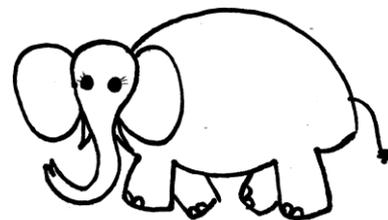

5. Look at page 30. What two things did Daisy enjoy?

6. Look at page 31. What did Miss Catkin say to Bob and Benny?

7. Why did they buy two umbrellas?

Treetops Stage 11

An Odd Job for Bob and Benny

1. Mrs Catkin said, "I've got an odd job for you. I'm going to visit my sister and I want you to look after my baby elephant. She can sleep in your shed and she likes a bun now and then." Now look at page 9.

What did Benny think Mrs Catkin had said to him?

'I want you to look after my baby sister. She can sleep in your bed and she likes the sun.'

2. Look at page 15. Why did Bob and Benny try and put the bed into the garden?

So Daisy could get some sun.

3. Why did they make a hole in the roof?

To bring the sun into the bedroom.

4. What had Daisy gone out to look for and where did Bob and Benny find her?

A bun, at the bakers.

5. Look at page 30. What two things did Daisy enjoy?

Walking up and down to make the lawn flat, she liked being useful. The grass clippings with a bun on top.

6. Look at page 31. What did Miss Catkin say to Bob and Benny?

'You've done a very good job, boys.'

7. Why did they buy two umbrellas?

There was still a hole in the roof. When the rain came back that night, they lay in bed with the umbrellas up.
