

Measuring.

Which unit of measurement would you use to measure these different things in?

Colour-code the chart below to match each problem to its answer.

Make sure each pair has its own colour. Use coloured pencils, crayons and felt-tips to make each pair look different.

How fast can you run from here to ?	millimetres
How much does my pencil weigh?	centimetres
How wide is a £1 coin?	metres
How long until break time?	kilometres
How long is my table?	degrees
How much do I weigh?	grams
How far from here to London?	kilograms
How long until Christmas?	millilitres
How long is the playground?	seconds
How long until home time?	minutes
What is my body temperature?	hours
How much coke in a can?	days
How long until half term?	months
What are the angles of this triangle?	years
How old am I?	degrees centigrade